FCC Anti-Racism Parent Guide

Purpose
The purpose of this document is to provide helpful resources to parents and adult leaders who plan to engage in discussions about anti-racism with youth.

About the Anti-Racism Committee
The goal of the committee is to consciously embark on the anti-racism learning journey with each other in Christ at FCC. We hope this shared experience allows us to build bonds with each other and provide recommendations of action FCC can take within the community.

Films
- Exterminate All the Brutes
  - Raoul Peck's Peabody Award winning documentary
  - An informative resource for parents while also throwing open doors of future exploration for the family. This work comes from a radically left perspective.
- Origin
  - Written and directed by Ava Duvernay
  - Based on the life of author Isabel Wilkerson as she writes the book Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents

Other Ideas
- For families, form your own particular list of questions and topics to explore together
- Take a look at your family history to understand its details and determine how they fit into the larger systemic patterns of exploitation in America
